

What are Prayers?

At temple people say or sing many different prayers.
When people say prayers they talk to God.

Some prayers thank God for making our world and the good things in it. Other prayers say nice things about God.

Many prayers are in Hebrew. This is because the people who wrote Jewish prayers long ago spoke Hebrew. But there are also many prayers that are in English.

In temple people usually say some Hebrew prayers and some English prayers.